The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent European Union Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010.¹

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the European Union internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) and the European Securities Market Authorities (ESMA), as well as the Joint Committee and the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

¹ OJ L 56, 4.3.1968, p. 1, as last amended by Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 1023/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 October 2013, OJ L 287, 29.10.2013, p.15.

The EBA is seeking a suitable candidate for the position of a Policy Expert on secondment² in the Supervisory Review, Recovery and Resolution Unit of the Prudential Regulation and Supervisory Policy Department of the EBA at its offices in Paris, France.

Job description

Main purpose

Under the responsibility of the Head of the Supervisory Review, Recovery and Resolution Unit, the Policy Expert will contribute to the EBA's work on supervisory convergence in ensuring that regulatory and supervisory rules for on-going concern and crisis situations are implemented consistently across the EU, in particular through the development of technical standards, guidelines, opinions and reports, through the monitoring of the consistent implementation of the Single Rulebook and through the monitoring of supervisory and resolution colleges.

The role will also involve advising, monitoring and facilitating competent authorities in their implementation and application of guidelines and standards in a consistent way in day-to-day supervisory practices.

Main responsibilities:

- Contributing to the development of EBA policies and methodologies in the area of convergence of supervisory practices, as well as monitoring and facilitating the implementation of the Single Rulebook in a comparable and consistent manner across the EU;
- Participating in the development and taking responsibility for timely completion of guidelines, binding technical standards or any other regulatory products relevant for supervisory convergence across the EU;
- Providing policy advice and contributing to the preparation of policy stances related to supervisory convergence;
- Ensuring and monitoring the supervisory and resolution colleges, in particular through the participation in colleges of cross border banking groups;
- Drafting annual EBA reports related in particular to supervisory convergence and supervisory colleges;
- Providing support to the EBA internal committees and subgroups and their chairpersons;
- Liaising with external stakeholders such as competent and resolution authorities, EU institutions, agencies and bodies;
- Providing implementation advice and guidance related to relevant EBA policies including the provision of training;
- To the extent necessary, externally representing the EBA at a technical level in his/her area of expertise;
- Executing other related tasks as sought by the Head of the Unit, as for instance tasks related to resolution topics.

²Decision EBA/DC/2016/135 on Secondment of National Experts.

Requirements

1. Eligibility Criteria

To be considered eligible, candidates must satisfy all the criteria listed below, by the deadline for submitting applications:

1.1 General

- Be a national of a Member State of the European Union, of an European Free Trade Association Member State (Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, and Switzerland), or a country with which the Council has decided to open accession negotiations and which has concluded a specific agreement on staff secondments;
- Be entitled to his/her full rights as a citizen;
- Have a thorough knowledge of one of the official languages of the European Union³ and a satisfactory knowledge of another language of the European Union;
- Be employed by a) a member of the ESFS (as specified in Article 2 of Regulation (EU) no. 1093/2010), b) a country with which the Council has decided to open accession negotiations and which has concluded a specific agreement on staff secondments for participation in EBA's work within the meaning of Article 75 of the Regulation, c) a public intergovernmental organisation, who are seconded to EBA so that it can use their expertise in a particular field.⁴
- Have worked for their employer on a permanent or contract basis for at least 12 months before their secondment.
- Have the support to apply for this position, evidenced by a letter of support from the applicant's employer (as defined in the fourth bullet point).

1.2 Specific

1.2.1 Qualifications

To be eligible, a candidate must have a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least three years attested by a diploma.⁵

1.2.2 Professional experience

To qualify for the position, a candidate must have, in addition to the above, at least 6 years of relevant proven fulltime professional experience, of which at least 3 years must have been in the field of banking supervision (on or off-site), banking resolution, prudential risk management or prudential risk reporting after completing the education as mentioned under 1.2.1.

³ The official languages of the European Union are: Bulgarian, Croatian, Czech, Danish, Dutch, English, Estonian, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Irish, Italian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Slovak, Slovenian, Spanish, and Swedish.

⁴ In accordance with Article 1 paragraph 2 of the EBA Decision on Secondment of National Experts, the Executive Director of EBA may, on a case-by-case basis, authorise the secondment of an SNE from another employer if the interests of EBA warrant bringing in specific expertise as a temporary measure.

⁵ Only qualifications awarded by EU Member State authorities or European Economic Area (EEA) authorities or qualifications recognised as equivalent by the relevant authorities will be taken into consideration. If the main studies took place outside the European Union, the candidate's qualification must have been recognised by a body delegated officially for the purpose by one of the European Union Members States (such as a national Ministry of Education) and a document attesting so must be submitted with the application by the closing date.

1.2.3 Knowledge of languages

For working purposes, as English is the working language of the EBA⁶, an excellent knowledge of the English language, both written and spoken, is required.⁷

Native English speakers will be tested to prove their second language skills.

2. Selection criteria

In addition to the above, the following selection criteria will be used:

- Proven experience in assessing or reporting prudential risks or own funds of banks;
- Proven knowledge of EU banking regulation, in particular in relation to the supervision and/or resolution of cross- border banks;
- Proven experience of supervisory and/or resolution colleges;
- Proven experience in drafting supervisory policies, stances, procedures, or reports;
- Proven experience of dealing with a wide range of stakeholders.

Applications will be assessed on the basis of the Eligibility and Selection criteria specified in parts 1 and 2.

For this position, the candidates are expected to fulfil the following competencies to be assessed during interviews:

- Be able to investigate and analyse complex information from a wide range of sources, consider options and propose and implement effective solutions to challenging legal and practical issues;
- Be able to take initiative and to work autonomously;
- Be able to communicate legal issues effectively to policy and operational colleagues;
- Strong sense of responsibility, commitment and cooperation;
- Flexibility to take on new tasks in a dynamic and evolving institutional environment;
- Proactive attitude;
- Ability to work efficiently under pressure.

3. Equal opportunities

As a European Union Authority, the EBA will apply a policy of equal opportunities and will take care to avoid any form of discrimination in its recruitment procedures.

4. Selection procedure

The selection procedure will include the following:

⁶ Decision EBA DC 003 of the Management Board on Internal Language Arrangements.

⁷ The knowledge is required at least at B2 level. The assessment at B2 level is done in accordance with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) (<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/sites/default/files/cefr-en.pdf>).

4.1. The selection committee will be established. All the candidates invited to interviews shall be informed on the composition of the selection committee in the invitation to the interview.

4.2. The selection committee will analyse application documents (CV, motivation letter, and eligibility criteria grid, statement of the employer supporting the application) of applicants with reference to the eligibility and selection criteria and will establish a shortlist. Short listed candidates may be invited to sit written tests and interviews.

Written tests will be done in English and will be related to the job and designed to test the ability to communicate in written English, knowledge and competencies related to the job, and drafting skills. Total mark for written test: 10. The minimum score to pass: 6.

The interview will aim to assess the suitability of the candidate to perform the duties, professional knowledge and motivation. The interview will be held in English. Total mark for interview: 10. The minimum score to pass: 6.

Successful candidates with the total score equal to and above 12 will be placed on the reserve list, which will be valid until 31 December 2020. It may be renewed. Inclusion in the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment. The successful candidate will be selected from the established reserve list which may also be used for the recruitment of a similar post depending on the needs of the EBA.

The selection committee's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and any contact with its members is strictly forbidden. Any contact made by the candidates or third parties in order to influence the members of the selection committee in relation to the selection constitutes grounds for disqualification from the selection procedure.

5. Appointment and conditions of secondment

5.1 Contract type, duration and starting date:

The successful candidate will be offered the position of Seconded National Expert for a minimum period of 12 months with the possibility of extension.

The estimated starting date is 1 October 2019.

5.2 Conditions of secondment

The person to be seconded shall remain in the service of his/her employer throughout the period of secondment. The SNE's employer shall thus undertake to continue to pay the salary, to maintain the social rights, particularly social security and pension.

In accordance with the EBA Decision on secondment of national experts, an SNE shall be entitled to a daily subsistence allowance and a monthly subsistence allowance (established by the Commission each year) paid by the EBA throughout the period of secondment. The allowances are intended to cover SNE's living expenses in the place of secondment on a flat-rate basis and shall in no circumstances be construed as remuneration paid by EBA.

These allowances are subject to the exchange rate as published monthly by the European Commission and the country correction coefficient currently applicable for Paris, France (116.7 %).
