

The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent EU Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EC) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010, and published in the Official Journal of the European Union (L 331/12) on 15 December, 2010 as amended by Regulation (EU) No 122/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2013 regarding the conferral of specific tasks on the European Central Bank pursuant to Council Regulation (EU) No 1024/2013 and published in the Official Journal of the European Union (L 287/6) on 29 October 2013.

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the EU internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the ESFS, the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, EIOPA and ESMA, as well as the Joint Committee and the ESRB.

The EBA is currently inviting applications for a position as a Bank Expert (HH Coordination) at its offices in London, United Kingdom.

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

Bank Expert (HH Coordination)

The Bank Expert on secondment we are looking for will play an important role in the oversight work of the EBA. Under the responsibility of the Head of Home-Host Coordination Unit she/he will contribute in developing policies and procedures related to the cross-border supervision and in facilitating the efficient functioning of colleges of supervisors by participating in meetings of supervisory colleges.

She/he will have a particular role in steering the work on the assessment of the equivalence between the legal and supervisory frameworks of third countries and Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of June 26 2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms, with a particular focus on the assessment of equivalence of confidentiality provisions and on provisions applicable to exposures to credit risk. She/he will also contribute in the development of guidelines and technical standards on supervisory cooperation and supervisory convergence.

Job description

Main responsibilities:

- Steering the EBA work on the assessment of equivalence of third countries prudential and regulatory requirements to those applied in the Union;
- Providing support to the home-host coordination work of the EBA including participating in colleges of supervisors of individual banking groups;
- Providing feedback and guidance to colleagues from NSAs on the functioning of supervisory colleges;
- Developing tools to assist in the efficient functioning of supervisory colleges and identification of risks on which cross border banking groups may be exposed;
- Participating on the development of technical standards and guidelines related to the supervisory review process and cross-border supervisory cooperation;
- Contributing and providing support to internal committees, subgroups and their chairpersons;
- Providing briefings for EBA representation at meetings with external policy makers, EU political institutions and regulatory bodies;
- Cooperating effectively with the other ESAs, the ESRB, and other international bodies;
- Carrying out other activities as may be required.

4. Appointment and conditions of engagement, duration and starting date

The position will be offered to the successful candidate as a secondment from a national supervisory authority for a minimum period of one year up to two years renewable. The home authority will remain as the employer during the period of secondment.

According to the EBA decision laying down rules on the secondment of national experts to EBA, the seconded national experts (SNEs) are staff employed by a member of the European System of Financial Supervision or by an IGO. In individual cases, SNEs may be accepted from other employers referred to in the decision.

The person to be seconded must have worked for his/her employer on a permanent or contract basis for at least 12 months before his/her secondment and shall remain in the service of that employer throughout the period of secondment. The SNE's employer shall thus undertake to continue to pay the salary, to maintain the social rights, particularly social security and pension.

The expected starting date is 16 June 2014.

5. Conditions of secondment

In accordance with the EBA decision laying down rules on the secondment of national experts to the EBA, an SNE shall be entitled to a daily subsistence allowance and a monthly subsistence allowance (established by the Commission each year) paid by the EBA throughout the period of secondment.

6. Place of employment

The EBA offices in London, United Kingdom.

7. Submission of Applications

Applications including a curriculum vitae in the Europass format, motivation letter, eligibility criteria grid, motivation letter, and a statement of the employer issued by the applicant's seconding authority/institution (member of the European System of Financial Supervision or an IGO) supporting his/her application for a position on secondment should be submitted in English to the following address: vacancies@eba.europa.eu by 12 April 2014 at 12:00 noon London time. Only complete applications will be accepted and considered.

EBA will disregard any application received after deadline. Applicants are strongly advised not to wait until the last day to submit their applications, since heavy internet traffic or fault with the internet connection could lead to difficulties in submission. The EBA cannot be held responsible for any delay due to such difficulties.

8. Data protection

EBA will ensure that candidates' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data. This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

9. Appeal Procedure

If a candidate considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision, he/she can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, at the following address:

The Executive Director
European Banking Authority
Selection procedure: Ref. DOV HH SEC 07/2014
Floor 18 Tower 42
