The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent European Union Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010.²

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the European Union internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) and the European Securities Market Authorities (ESMA), as well as the Joint Committee and the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

¹ See section 5.3 – Place of employment

² OJ L 56, 4.3.1968, p. 1, as last amended by Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 1023/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 October 2013, OJ L 287, 29.10.2013, p.15.

The EBA is seeking a suitable candidate for the position of an EXPERT (Anti-money laundering) on secondment³ at its offices in Paris, France.

Main purpose

The Expert on secondment will play an important role in underpinning the regulatory and supervisory efforts of the EBA concerning anti-money laundering and countering the financing of terrorism (AML/CFT) in the European Union.

In particular, under the overall management of the Head of the Unit on Conduct, Payments and Consumers (COPAC), the Expert on secondment will contribute to further enhancing the single rulebook in the area of AML/CFT, including through the development of technical standards, guidelines, opinions or reports, and through fostering supervisory convergence and reviewing the approaches of national competent authorities to the supervision of AML/CFT requirements.

Main responsibilities:

- Preparing policy stances and providing policy advice in his/her area of expertise;
- Supporting the development of guidelines and technical standards in his/her area of expertise;
- Carrying out on-site and off-site reviews of national approaches to the supervision of AML requirements;
- Supporting potential investigations into breaches of Union law;
- Providing support to internal committees and subgroups and their chairpersons;
- Externally representing the EBA at a technical level in his/her area of expertise;
- Facilitating external consultations, implementation studies, training and impact assessments for the respective guidelines and binding technical standards;
- Producing deliverables that are methodologically robust, convincingly argued, transparent, in accordance with the EBA's governance procedures, and agreed by the national competent authorities;
- Facilitating and fostering the co-operation of competent AML/CFT authorities across the EU;
- Exploring synergies with other EBA work on governance and internal control, authorisations payment services; electronic money, and the regulation of FinTech; and
- Contributing to other activities being progressed in the Unit, such as on consumer protection, depositor protection and payment services.

Requirements

1. Eligibility Criteria

To be considered eligible, candidates must satisfy all the criteria listed below, by the deadline for submitting applications:

1.1 General

³Decision EBA/DC/2016/135 on Secondment of National Experts.

- Be a national of a Member State of the European Union, of an European Free Trade Association Member State (Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, and Switzerland), or a country with which the Council has decided to open accession negotiations and which has concluded a specific agreement on staff secondments;
- Be entitled to his/her full rights as a citizen;
- Have a thorough knowledge of one of the official languages of the European Union⁴ and a satisfactory knowledge of another language of the European Union;
- Be employed by a) a member of the ESFS (as specified in Article 2 of Regulation (EU) no. 1093/2010), b) a country with which the Council has decided to open accession negotiations and which has concluded a specific agreement on staff secondments for participation in EBA's work within the meaning of Article 75 of the Regulation, c) a public intergovernmental organisation, who are seconded to EBA so that it can use their expertise in a particular field.⁵
- Have worked for their employer on a permanent or contract basis for at least 12 months before their secondment.

1.2 Specific

1.2.1 Qualifications

To be eligible, a candidate must have a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least three years attested by a diploma.⁶

1.2.2 Professional experience

To qualify for the position, a candidate must have, in addition to the above, at least three years of relevant proven fulltime professional experience after completing the education as mentioned under 1.2.1.

The work experience for eligibility purposes is counted from the award of diploma up to the closing date of applications.

1.2.3 Knowledge of languages

For working purposes, as English is the working language of the EBA,⁷ an excellent knowledge of the English language, both written and spoken, is required.⁸
