The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent European Union Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010³.

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the European Union internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) and the European Securities Market Authorities (ESMA), as well as the Joint Committee and the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

¹ According to the Article 2(f) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS)

² Paris, France is the new seat of the EBA from 30 March 2019.

³ Regulation (EU) No 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010 establishing a European Supervisory Authority (European Banking Authority), amending Decision No 716/2009/EC and repealing Commission Decision 2009/78/EC (OJ L 331, 15.12.2010, p. 1).

The European Banking Authority is seeking a suitable candidate for the position of a Policy Expert in the Policy Coordination Unit for the work on the Q&A (questions and answers) process that the EBA has set up for addressing stakeholders' questions on the practical application of the Single Rulebook⁴ in banking, and in particular of the Capital Requirements Regulation (CRR) and Capital Requirements Directive (CRD) and the corresponding Supervisory Reporting frameworks.

Job description

Main purpose

Under the responsibility of the Head of Policy Coordination Unit, the Policy Expert will play an important role supporting the work on Q&A around these legislative frameworks as well as the related reporting frameworks. Other legislative frameworks covered by the Q&A process, such as the Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive (BRRD) or the Deposit Guarantee Schemes Directive (DGSD) and the related regulatory products (technical standards, guidelines) that will accompany them, will also be included in the field of action. The successful candidate will contribute to the work of a small team that ensures the functioning of the Q&A process.

Main responsibilities:

- Supporting the Single Rulebook Q&A process established for addressing stakeholders' questions on the CRD-CRR and the related ITS on Supervisory reporting;
- Ensuring the efficient and adequate administration and monitoring of the process and contributing to the development and the timely delivery of Q&As under review;
- Providing support in relation to the Q&A process to management, internal committees, subgroups;
- Representing the EBA at technical level and in working groups in relation to the work on Q&As;
- Preparing policy stances and providing policy advice with a view to the consistent and effective application of relevant areas covered by the Q&A process.

Requirements
