

Lars Afrell

Lars Afrell graduated from Stockholm University and worked between 1979 and 1990 in different courts in Sweden as clerk, assistant judge and associate judge of appeal. Between 1990 and 2008 Lars worked for the Ministry of Finance, the last 10 years as director for the securities market division. Since 2008 Lars is chief legal counsel at the Swedish Securities Dealers Association. Lars was member of the drafting committee for the Hague Securities Convention 1998-2002 and also member of the Commission's Legal Certainty Group 2005-2008. Lars chaired the Working Party on Civil Law Matters for UNIDROIT Coordination (the Geneva Securities Convention) during the Swedish presidency 2009. Lars is author and co-author of several books and articles about financial market law.