

Gonzalo Gasós

Gonzalo Gasós is Senior Director of Prudential Policy and Supervision at the European Banking Federation (EBF), leading the department of risk management, economics, supervisory practices and crisis management. He serves as Secretary of the Banking Supervision Committee.

Gonzalo coordinates the EBF relationship with the ECB Single Supervisory Mechanism (SSM) in Frankfurt since its creation in 2014. In this role, he manages the platform for dialogue between banks and ECB supervision with senior management and working groups. Likewise, he organises the exchanges between banks and the Single Resolution Board (SRB) in Brussels.

He has been working at the EBF since 2009. Previously, he worked for Santander Group where he held various positions of responsibility in risk management and prudential standards, including the implementation of Basel II in the UK and European affiliates, the development of the Information Unit of Global Corporate and Counterparty Credit Risk, the control function of the International Risks Division and the development of the Management Information System.

After a student internship in IBM, he worked during 4 years as a management consultant in the Financial Services Division of Accenture, participating in large projects on information systems, accounting frameworks, operational transformation and audit of internal governance.

He holds a master's degree in Economic Science and Business Administration from Universidad Autónoma in Madrid and completed post-graduate programs at Instituto de Empresa in Madrid and at IMD in Lausanne.

He is currently Vice-Chair of the Prudential Supervision working group of the International Banking Federation (IBFed), member of the Advisory Board of the European Banking Institute (EBI) and member of the European Commission's Non-Performing Loans Advisory Panel. He is a longstanding collaborator of The European Money and Finance Forum (SUERF).

In July 2024, Gonzalo Gasós was appointed as a member in the EBA's Banking Stakeholder Group.
