

Dermott Jewell

Dermott Jewell (B.Sc. (Mgmt) Law (TCD) former CEO, he acts as iPolicy and Council Advisor to the Consumers' Association of Ireland in a voluntary capacity.

A recognised advocate, trainer and advisor in consumer rights and protection, for over 30 years, he has lectured in project and change management to consumer organisation members from across the EU and in consumer law through the EC Trace and Consumer Law Ready projects, in Ireland.

Specialising in management law and dispute resolution, he is a former Chairman of the Financial Services & Pensions Ombudsman Council (FSPOC); Director of the Investor Compensation Company (ICCL) at the Central Bank of Ireland; Member of the ESMA Securities and Market Stakeholder Group (SMSG).

His current representations include:

Chairperson of the Pharmaceutical Society of Ireland (PSI) Professional Conduct Committee:
Member – Legal Services Regulatory Authority (LSRA): Member of the National Cash Forum (NCF) and the Payment Systems Policy & Oversight Forum 9(IRPF) of the Central Bank of Ireland.

He was elected President of ANEC – The European Consumer Voice in Standardisation in June 2019 which he currently represents at the High Level Forum of Standardisation of DG-GROW.

Mr Jewell is a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitration (Irish Branch) CI Arb with accreditations in Employment Investigation and Mediation. He is a Member of the Irish Institute of Mediation and holds the IPA-UCD Professional Certificate in Governance.