

Specific Data Protection Notice

Form on innovative applications or potential impediments

The European Banking Authority (EBA) processes your personal data based on Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 (EUDPR).

The following information is provided in accordance with Articles 15 and 16 of the EUDPR.

Who is the controller?

The EBA is the controller with regard to the data processing activities described in this data protection notice. The EBA can be contacted through email using info@eba.europa.eu or in writing using the following address:

DEFENSE 4 – EUROPLAZA
20 Avenue André Prothin CS 30154
92927 Paris La Défense CEDEX

For more information on the EBA, please consult the EBA website <https://eba.europa.eu>.

What personal data do we process, for what purpose, who can access it and how long do we keep them?

This form can be used by members of the public who wish to inform the EBA about an innovative application or a potential regulatory or supervisory impediment. To use this form, submitters must identify themselves.

The EBA may process the following personal data: type of stakeholder, first name, last name or organisation, country, e-mail, agreement or disagreement to be potentially contacted with regard to the input provided in the form, and any personal data included in the description of the innovative application or potential supervisory or regulatory impediment, in order to gather additional information and to facilitate direct communication with the submitter, in the case this is deemed necessary and where explicit agreement is granted to do so.

For the purpose of this processing activity personal data may be accessed by the EBA staff managing FinTech@eba.europa.eu. This data may be further shared with relevant EBA staff where this is necessary to follow up on the reported innovative application or potential impediment. The EBA will keep the personal data for a period that is needed to perform innovation monitoring and to facilitate communication with the submitters, where needed. The retention period will not exceed 5 years from the submission of the form.

Why do we process your personal data and under what legal basis?

The processing of your personal data by the EBA is lawful since it is based on Article 5(1)(a) of the EUDPR: (a) a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the EBA, by Article 9(2) of Regulation (EU) No 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and the Council of 24 November 2010 establishing the EBA.

Will the processing of your personal data involve any transfer outside of the EU?

Your personal data is processed within the EU/EEA and will not leave that territory.

What are your rights regarding your personal data?

As a data subject, an individual whose personal data is processed, you have the following rights:

Access - You have the right of access to your personal data and to relevant information concerning how we use it.

Rectification - You have the right to rectify your personal data, where there are inaccuracies or where data is incomplete.

Erasure - Under certain conditions, you have the right to ask that we delete your personal data.

Objection - You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data on grounds related to your particular situation. If you do so, the EBA may only continue processing your personal data where overriding legitimate grounds can be demonstrated or where the processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

Restriction - Under certain conditions, you have the right to ask that we restrict the use of your personal data or momentarily pause the processing conducted on the data.

Right to Withdraw Consent – Where the EBA relies on consent as the legal basis for processing your personal data you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time.

For more information on these rights and details of the exceptions that may apply please see Articles 14 to 25 of EUDPR.

Where you wish to exercise any of your rights, you can send your request by post in a sealed envelope or via email using the contact details provided below.

How to withdraw your consent and the consequences of doing this

As regards the use of personal data to communicate with the respondent, if you want us to delete them, please contact the EBA and we will do it at the latest ten working days after your request.

Please note that withdrawing your consent does not affect the lawfulness of any processing based on your consent before your consent is withdrawn.

You have the right to lodge a complaint

If you have any remarks or complaints regarding the way we process your personal data, we invite you to contact the Data Protection Officer (DPO) of the EBA (see section on contact details below).

You have, in any case, the right to lodge a complaint with the European Data Protection Supervisor, our supervisory authority for data protection matters.

Contact details for enquiries regarding your personal data

Should you wish to contact the EBA with regard to the processing of your personal data, we encourage you to do so by email: FinTech@eba.europa.eu by stating in the subject “Data Protection Enquiry”.

If you wish to contact the DPO of the EBA personally, you can send an e-mail to dpo@eba.europa.eu or a letter to the postal address of the EBA marked for the attention of the DPO of the EBA.
