

SECONDED NATIONAL EXPERTS' SUBSISTENCE ALLOWANCES AS OF 01.01.2026

During the secondment at the EBA, an SNE may be entitled to subsistence allowances, in line with the provisions of Article 18 of the EBA's Decision on secondment (EBA DC 584) and with the amounts established by the European Commission each year.

These subsistence allowances are granted under the same conditions as the expatriation allowance for temporary and contract agents and are multiplied by the same correction coefficient (currently 113.6%). They are intended to cover an SNE's living expenses at the place of secondment, and shall not be considered as remuneration paid by the EBA.

Subsistence allowances

- A daily subsistence allowance of 180,65 €, payable for every calendar day;
- A monthly subsistence allowance, payable based on the distance between the place of origin and the place of secondment (calculated by orthodromic distance, as crow flies).

Distance between the place of origin and the place of secondment (Paris) in km	Monthly Amount
0-150	0 €
>150	116,11 €
>300	206,42 €
>500	335,47 €
>800	541,91 €
>1300	851,57 €
>2000	1019,33 €

Example of an allowance calculation for an SNE at the EBA recruited from Frankfurt (straight-line distance between Paris and Frankfurt: 478 km) for a calendar month of 30 days:

Subsistence allowance	Period	Amounts, including Correction coefficient	Total
Daily	30 days	$(180,65 \times 30) \times 113.6\%$	6,156.55 €
Monthly	each month	$206,42 \times 113.6\%$	234.49 €
Total allowances			6,391.04 €

Travel costs compensation

A flat-rate amount for the SNE's travel expenses, between the place of origin and the place of secondment at the beginning and end of the secondment, could be granted, in accordance with article 19 of the abovementioned Decision.

This travel cost compensation is granted on the condition that the SNE does not receive a similar contribution from their employer or any other body.
