

Specific Data Protection Notice

Joint Bank Reporting Committee - Call for Expression of Interest for Reporting Contact Group

The European Banking Authority (EBA) processes your personal data based on Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 (EUDPR).

The following information is provided in accordance with Articles 15 and 16 of the EUDPR.

Who is the controller?

The EBA is the controller with regard to the data processing activities described in this data protection notice. The EBA can be contacted through email using info@eba.europa.eu or in writing using the following address:

DEFENSE 4 – EUROPLAZA
20 Avenue André Prothin CS 30154
92927 Paris La Défense CEDEX

For more information on the EBA, please consult the EBA website <https://eba.europa.eu>.

What personal data do we process, for what purpose, who can access it and how long do we keep them?

The EBA processes your personal data in the context of the call for expression of interest for the Reporting Contact Group (RCG). The RCG is one substructure of the Joint Bank Reporting Committee (JBRC). It reunites external stakeholders that act as a contact channel, forum for discussion and joint work with the authorities.

Categories of persons whose data is processed (i.e. potential RCG members) in the context of the above-mentioned RCG Call for Expression of Interest: Members from the banking industry operating in the EEA area or other industry offering reporting services to the banking sector - includes individual representatives and representatives of associations currently employed by or acting on behalf of EEA banking institutions, representing the diverse models and sizes of banking institutions and businesses.

The following categories of personal data are processed in the context of the above-mentioned RCG Call for Expression of Interest: full name; telephone number; email address; nationality; information on the employer, Curriculum vitae containing any information provided by applicants, such as employment history, academic history, biographical information, photograph.

Personal data will be processed for the following purposes:

- Call for expression of interest and selection of members of the RCG. The selection and appointment of members will be done by the JBRC;
- Establishment of a reserve list of candidates for potential appointments - will be done by the JBRC;

Personal data is received via the EBA website EU Survey application (privacy notice) and stored internally in access-controlled EBA locations.

Your personal data can be accessed and shared with the JBRC members (including European and National authorities). Some personal data of successful applicants will be made public on the EBA and ECB websites (e.g. name).

The EBA will keep the personal data of applicants processed for the above purposes for up to four years - after three years a new selection of RCG members or three-year renewal takes place. The personal data may be transferred as part of the information referred to in Articles 15 and 16 of EUDPR. In the case of legal challenge, personal data will be stored until the matter concerned is resolved.

Why do we process your personal data and under what legal basis?

The processing of your personal data by the EBA is lawful since it is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the EBA (Article 5(1)(a) of the EUDPR) by Regulation 1093/2010.

Participation in this call for expression of interest is completely voluntary.

Will the processing of your personal data involve any transfer outside of the EU?

Your personal data is processed within the EU/EEA and will not leave that territory.

What are your rights regarding your personal data?

As a data subject, an individual whose personal data is processed, you have the following rights:

Access - You have the right to access your personal data and to relevant information concerning how we use it.

Rectification - You have the right to rectify your personal data, where there are inaccuracies or where data is incomplete.

Erasure - Under certain conditions, you have the right to ask that we delete your personal data.

Objection - You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data on grounds related to your particular situation. If you do so, EBA may only continue processing your personal data where overriding legitimate grounds can be demonstrated or where the processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

Restriction - Under certain conditions, you have the right to ask that we restrict the use of your personal data or momentarily pause the processing conducted on the data.

Right to Withdraw Consent – Where the EBA relies on consent as the legal basis for processing your personal data you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time.

For more information on these rights and details of the exceptions that may apply please see Articles 14 to 25 of EUDPR.

Where you wish to exercise any of your rights, you can send your request by post in a sealed envelope or via email using the contact details provided below.

You have the right to lodge a complaint

If you have any remarks or complaints regarding the way we process your personal data, we invite you to contact the Data Protection Officer (DPO) of the EBA (see section on contact details below).

You have, in any case, the right to lodge a complaint with the European Data Protection Supervisor, our supervisory authority for data protection matters.

Contact details for enquiries regarding your personal data
