The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent European Union Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010².

The EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in the European Union banking and other relevant areas of the single market under its competence. It promotes public goods such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors. It works to guarantee a level playing field, strengthen international supervisory coordination, promote supervisory convergence and advise the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related governance, auditing and financial reporting issues. As part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely with the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority and the European Securities Market Authorities, and the European Systemic Risk Board.

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

¹ According to the Article 3(a) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS)

² Regulation (EU) No 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010 establishing a European Supervisory Authority (European Banking Authority), amending Decision No 716/2009/EC and repealing Commission Decision 2009/78/EC (OJ L 331, 15.12.2010, p. 1).

The European Banking Authority is seeking suitable candidates for the position of a Policy Officer in Credit Risk at its offices in Paris, France.

Job description

Main purpose

The Policy Officer will contribute to the EBA's regulatory work in the area of credit risk, with focus on respectively the standardised and internal ratings-based approach in the prudential framework. In particular, under the overall management of the Director of the Prudential Regulation and Supervisory Policy Department and the Head of the Risk-based Metrics Unit, the Policy Officer will support Policy Experts in the area of credit risk. This will include analytical support to the development of the EBA's benchmarking exercise for internal models, development of analysis for supervisory and regulatory matters and maintenance of a number of credit risk related lists.

Main responsibilities:

- Providing analytical support to the development and the timely completion of guidelines and binding technical standards;
- Providing analytical support to the development of technical reports in the area of credit risk;
- Externally representing the EBA at a technical level in his/her area of expertise;
- Facilitating external consultations, implementation studies and training for the respective guidelines and binding technical standards;
- Executing any other tasks as decided by and under the responsibility of the Director of the Prudential Regulation and Supervisory Policy Department and the Head of the Risk-based Metrics Unit.

Requirements

1. Eligibility Criteria

To be considered eligible, candidates must satisfy all the criteria listed below, by the deadline for submitting applications.

- Be a national of one of the Member State of the European Union, or a national of the European Economic Area (Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway);³
- Be entitled to his/her full rights as a citizen;⁴
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by the applicable laws on military service;

³ Due to the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union on the 31/01/2020, candidates with UK nationality who do not hold the nationality of a Member State of the European Union or of the European Economic Area, are not eligible for calls for applications at the EBA due to the fact that they do not fulfil the requirements of Article 12 (2)(a) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants

⁴ Prior to the appointment, the successful candidate will be asked to provide an official document showing the absence of any criminal record.

- Have a thorough knowledge of one of the official languages⁵ of the European Union and a satisfactory knowledge⁶ of another language of the European Union;
- Be physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post.⁷

1.2 Specific

1.2.1 Qualifications⁸

To be eligible, a candidate must have a level of education, which corresponds to completed university studies of at least three years attested by a diploma.

Candidates must indicate in their applications the official duration of studies and the graduation dates for all the diplomas they have obtained.

1.2.2 Knowledge of languages

For working purposes, as English is the working language of the EBA⁹, an excellent knowledge of the English language, both written and spoken, is required. Native English speakers will be tested to prove their second language skills, in accordance with section 1.1 of the vacancy notice.

2. Selection criteria

Applications will be assessed based on the Eligibility and Essential Selection Criteria specified in sections 1 and 2 of this vacancy notice. Candidates are required to clearly indicate in their curricula vitae how they acquired the knowledge and experience allowing them to meet the selection criteria mentioned below, and give specific examples.

2.1 Essential selection criteria

In addition to the eligibility criteria above, the following essential selection criteria will be used. Please note that all essential criteria are mandatory, meaning that no application will be assessed further if a candidate obtains a zero score in any of them:

- At least two years of fulltime professional experience, preferably with an emphasis on credit risk, in the field of EU banking regulation and/or supervision and/or analytical support function after completing the education as mentioned in section 1.2.1 of the vacancy notice;
- Proven experience in data presentation and analysis– please give specific examples in your application;
- Proven experience in drafting policy stances, regulations or academic papers – please give specific examples of the documents you have drafted in your application;

⁵ The official languages of the European Union: Bulgarian, Croatian, Czech, Danish, Dutch, English, Estonian, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Irish, Italian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Slovak, Slovenian, Spanish, and Swedish.

⁶ The knowledge is required at least at B2 level. The assessment at B2 level is done in accordance with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages \(CEFR\)

⁷ Before the appointment, the successful candidate will be examined by one of the European Union medical centres in order to confirm that the candidate fulfils the requirements of Article 12(2)(d) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS).

⁸ Only qualifications awarded by EU Member State authorities or European Economic Area (EEA) authorities or qualifications recognised as equivalent by the relevant authorities will be taken into consideration. If the main studies took place outside the European Union, the candidate's qualification must have been recognised by a body delegated officially for the purpose by one of the European Union Members States (such as a national Ministry of Education) and a document attesting so must be submitted with the application by the closing date.

⁹ Decision EBA DC 003 of the Management Board on Internal Language Arrangements.

2.2 Advantageous criteria

Candidates who meet all of the essential selection criteria will be scored against the following advantageous criteria:

- Experience in SAS, SQL or similar languages

2.3 Supplementary criteria

In addition to the above candidates are expected to fulfil the following competencies that may be assessed during interviews:

- The ability to manage their own workload and work without close supervision;
- Have a highly developed sense of responsibility;
- Be able to work and deliver to tight deadlines;
- Have very good communication skills;
- Be a good team player with strong inter-personal skills.

3. Equal opportunities

As a European Union Authority, the EBA is committed to providing equal opportunities to all its employees and applicants for employment. As an employer, the EBA is committed to ensuring gender equality and to preventing discrimination on any grounds. It actively welcomes applications from all qualified candidates from diverse backgrounds, across all abilities, without any distinction on any ground such as sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age, marital status or other family situation or sexual orientation, and from the broadest possible geographical basis amongst the EU Member States.

In particular, the EBA encourages the applications of women for the positions where they are currently under-represented.

4. Selection procedure

The selection procedure will include the following:

4.1. A selection committee will be established whose members will be of the same or higher grade than the advertised position. All candidates shall be informed of the composition of the selection committee in the acknowledgement of receipt for their application.

4.2. The selection committee will analyse the application documents (curriculum vitae, motivation letter, and eligibility criteria grid) of applicants with reference to the eligibility and selection criteria and will establish a shortlist. Candidates who do not meet all of the eligibility criteria will be excluded from the selection procedure. Eligible candidates will then be scored on the essential criteria. Those who meet all of the essential selection criteria will be scored against the advantageous criteria. Those candidates who do not meet all of the essential selection criteria will not be assessed further. The most suitable candidates with the highest overall scores will be shortlisted. Shortlisted candidates may be invited to interviews and to sit written tests. Interviews and written tests may possibly be held remotely.

The written test will be designed to test the ability to communicate in written English, knowledge and competencies related to the job and drafting skills. Total mark for written test: 10 points. The minimum score to pass: 6 points.

The interview will be held in English and aim to assess the motivation and the professional knowledge of the candidates as well as their suitability to perform the duties mentioned under main responsibilities. The total mark for the interview: 10 points. The minimum score to pass: 6 points.

Successful candidates with a total score equal to and above 12 points will be placed on the reserve list, which will be valid until 31 December 2022. It may be renewed. Inclusion on the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment. The successful candidate will be selected from the established reserve list which may also be used for the recruitment of a similar post depending on the needs of the EBA. When a vacancy becomes available, candidates on the reserve list may be contacted for additional interviews.

In accordance with Articles 11 and 11a of the Staff Regulations (SR) and Articles 11 and 81 of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) the successful candidate will be required to make a declaration of the conflict of interest before recruitment. The EBA's Executive Director will examine whether the successful candidate has any personal interest which may impair his/her independence or any other conflict of interest in relation to the position offered and will adopt appropriate measures. To that end, the successful candidate, using a specific form shall inform the Executive Director of any actual or potential conflict of interest.

Please note that the selection committee's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden. Any contact made by the candidates or third parties in order to influence the members of the selection committee in relation to the selection constitutes grounds for disqualification from the selection procedure.

5. Appointment and conditions of employment

5.1 Contract type, duration and starting date:

The successful candidate will be offered a contract agent¹⁰ fixed-term contract of three years with a probation period of nine months and the possibility of extension.

The estimated starting date is 1 March 2022.

5.4 Place of employment

The offices of the European Banking Authority are located on Floors 24 to 27, Europlaza, 20 Avenue André Prothin, La Défense 4 – 92400 Courbevoie, France.

5.5 Ethics obligations

Independence and high standards of professional conduct are crucial for ensuring high standards and excellence for the work of the EBA. The Agency also strives to ensure that its staff do not have any interests that could affect their impartiality.

The successful candidate will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make an annual declaration with respect to any interests which might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence. In addition, the successful candidate will be bound to professional secrecy and to confidentiality requirements while working at the EBA and after having left; he/she will have to confirm their compliance with these requirements on a specific declaration of intention.

Before recruiting a member of staff, the EBA's Executive Director will examine whether the candidate has any personal interest which may impair his/her independence or any other conflict of interest. To that end, the applicant, using a specific form, shall inform the Executive Director of any actual or potential conflict of interest.

Former staff members will be bound to seek clearance from the EBA before engaging in another activity for two years after leaving the Agency. If that activity is related to the work carried out during the last three years of service at the EBA, and it could lead to a conflict with the legitimate interests of the EBA, the Agency can give its approval subject to any conditions it sees fit or forbid the activity.

For more information on ethics obligations, please refer to the following documents:

- Decision of the Management Board EBA DC 006 of 12 January 2011 on EBA Code of Good Administrative Behaviour;¹¹
- Decision of the Executive Director EBA DC 104rev1 of 10 May 2017 on the EBA's Policy on Independence and Decision Making Processes for avoiding Conflicts of Interest (Conflict of Interest Policy) for Staff and other Contractual Parties;¹²
- Commission Decision C(2018) 4048 final of 29 June 2018 on outside activities and assignments and on occupational activities after leaving the Service;¹³
- Decision of the Executive Director EBA DC 271 of 26 April 2019 on the Ethics Guidelines for EBA staff.¹⁴

6. Submission of Applications

Applications including a curriculum vitae in the Europass format¹⁵, a motivation letter, and the completed eligibility criteria grid, should be submitted in English in pdf format to the following address: eba-policy-officer-selection@eba.europa.eu by 5 January 2022 at 12.00 noon Paris time.

Please indicate the reference number of this selection, your name and surname in the subject of your email.

The EBA will disregard any application received after deadline. Applicants are strongly advised not to wait until the last day to submit their applications, since heavy internet traffic or fault with the internet connection could lead to difficulties in submission. The EBA cannot be held responsible for any delay due to such difficulties.

Only complete applications will be accepted and considered. In order for the application to be considered complete candidates must send all documents: curriculum vitae in the Europass format, motivation letter, completed eligibility criteria grid and copy of the document formally recognising your qualification within the EU, if applicable, (see footnote 8) before the deadline.

Candidates should assess and check before submitting their application whether they fulfil all the requirements as specified in the vacancy notice, particularly in terms of qualifications and relevant professional experience.

Professional experience indicated on the curriculum vitae is only counted from the time the candidate obtained the certificate or diploma required for the position and if it is on a paid basis (including study grants or internship grants). PhDs may be counted as professional experience if the candidate received a study grant or salary during the period of the PhD studies, – please indicate clearly on your CV if this is the case. The maximum duration counted for a PhD is three years provided that the PhD has been successfully concluded by the closing date for applications of the selection procedure.

Exact start and end dates of all professional experience (in format dd/mm/yyyy) and whether full time or part time work must be clearly indicated on the curriculum vitae. Freelance or self-employed candidates must provide either a copy of the entry in the relevant trade register, or any official document (for example a tax return document) showing clearly the length of the relevant professional experience. Details of any professional experience, training, research or studies must be given on the application form.

¹¹ EBA Code of Good Administrative Behaviour (EBA DC 006)

¹² EBA Conflict of Interest Policy (EBA DC 104 rev1)

¹³ Outside activities and Occupational activities after leaving the Service

¹⁴ EBA Ethics Guideline for EBA staff (EBA DC 271)

¹⁵ eba.europa.eu/about-us/careers/practical-information

Candidates must be able to provide supporting documents clearly showing duration and nature of experience upon request.

The address indicated on the curriculum vitae will be used as the location from which the candidates invited to interviews travel.

At this stage, please do not send supporting documents (copies of ID cards, passports, diplomas, etc.) unless it is to demonstrate the recognition of your qualification within the EU, if applicable, (see footnote 8).

7. Data protection

EBA will ensure that candidates' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725¹⁶. This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

8. Appeal Procedure

Candidates who consider that their interests have been prejudiced by any decision related to the selection procedure can take the following actions:

8.1 Request for review of the decisions taken by the Selection Committee

Within ten calendar days of the date of the letter notifying the candidate of a decision taken by the Selection Committee, he/she may submit a written request for a review of such a decision, setting out the reasons for the request, to the following e-mail address: EBA-vacancies@eba.europa.eu.

8.2 Appeals

a) The candidate may lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations within the time limits provided for, at the following address:
