The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent European Union Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010.<sup>1</sup>

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the European Union internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) and the European Securities Market Authorities (ESMA), as well as the Joint Committee and the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

The European Banking Authority is seeking a suitable candidate on secondment<sup>2</sup> for the position of a Bank Sector Analyst on secondment at its offices in Paris, France.

Job description

In particular, under the responsibility of the Head of the Risk Analysis and Stress Testing Unit, the Bank Sector Analyst will play an important role in strengthening the EBA's capacity to undertake effective risk assessments and to contribute to the EU-wide stress testing and other broader work of Department of Economic Analysis and Statistics. The Bank Sector Analyst will contribute to the EBA's work in assessing risks in individual institutions and across the banking sector as a whole as well as contributing to thematic work, including stress testing.

Main purpose

Contributing to the EBA's work on stress testing, to the assessment of risks and vulnerabilities in the EU banking sector and other thematic work, including macro prudential analysis.

Main responsibilities:

- Contributing to the EU-wide stress testing and other EU-wide initiatives;
- Strengthening the EBA's capacity to assess risks, and the appropriate policy response, in banks across the EU banking sector utilising the EBA's supervisory data and information from other sources;
- Contributing to the improvement of the EBA's input material to its risk assessments and dashboards, including data management;
- Contributing to individual work streams to produce original thematic analysis on the EU banking sector as well as regular risk reports on risks and vulnerabilities;
- Contributing to the EBA work on macro prudential analysis.
