Function group and grade	AD 12
Duration of contract	3 years, with the possibility of extension
Department/Unit	Economic Analysis and Statistics Department
Place of employment	Paris, France
Deadline for applications	31 January 2021 at 12.00 noon Paris time
Reserve list valid until	31 December 2022

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is recruiting its Director for the Economic Analysis and Statistics Department.

Job description

As Director of the Economic Analysis and Statistics Department, you will lead a department responsible for the overall assessment of financial stability, risks and vulnerabilities in the EU banking sector. This will include: directing a wide range of risk analyses, performing EU-wide stress testing, carrying-out ex-ante and ex-post impact assessments of key regulatory and supervisory measures, and ensuring EBA’s gathering and dissemination of financial sector data to enhance transparency and market discipline.

Working closely with the EBA’s Chairperson and reporting to the Executive Director, you will steer the work of three units staffed with highly-qualified experts with diversified backgrounds, coordinate with the EBA’s other directors and competent authorities from the 27 EU member states, and contribute to the EBA’s public good objectives. The position will offer you a unique opportunity to strategically lead, inspire and empower, and to help shape an efficient and resilient EU banking system.

Main responsibilities

As Director, you will:

- Contribute to the efficient management of the EBA and the achievement of its strategic objectives
- Define the strategic orientation and work program of your department, lead its implementation, and ensure an adequate level of operational follow-up and reporting;
- Lead the departments’ units, fostering an open, efficient and motivating working atmosphere based on quality, trust and constructive feedback;
- Plan, manage, coordinate and report on the human resources of your department and, where appropriate, its financial resource;

¹ According to the Article 2(f) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS)

- Cooperate with and support other relevant EBA departments with a view to ensure a high-degree of communication, efficiency and synergies;
- Foster and maintain strong strategic relations with national competent authorities, EU institutions and a wide range of other stakeholders;
- Represent your department and the EBA by participating in or chairing meetings with public and private stakeholders, national competent authorities, EU and other relevant international institutions.

The Authority

The European Banking Authority is an independent European Union authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010².

The EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in the European Union banking and other relevant areas of the single market under its competence. It promotes public goods such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors. It works to guarantee a level playing field, strengthen international supervisory coordination, promote supervisory convergence and advise the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

An integral part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely together with the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) and the European Securities Market Authorities (ESMA), as well as the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

Requirements

1. Eligibility Criteria

To be considered eligible, candidates must satisfy all the criteria listed below, by the deadline for submitting applications.

- Proven capacity to take decisions, both at strategic and operational levels;
- Very good organisational skills and the ability to work under pressure and to deliver within precise deadlines and to prioritise tasks;
- Awareness of and experience in developing and maintaining high confidentiality standards.

3. Equal opportunities

As a European Union Authority, the EBA is committed to providing equal opportunities to all its employees and applicants for employment. As an employer, the EBA is committed to ensuring gender equality and to preventing discrimination on any grounds. It actively welcomes applications from all qualified candidates from diverse backgrounds, across all abilities, without any distinction on any ground such as sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age, marital status or other family situation or sexual orientation, and from the broadest possible geographical basis amongst the EU Member States.

In particular, the EBA encourages the applications of women for the positions where they are currently under-represented.

4. Selection procedure

The selection procedure will include the following:

4.1. A pre-selection panel will be established whose members will be of a grade and management function equal or superior to that of the advertised position. Candidates invited to interviews and to sit written tests shall be informed of the composition of the pre-selection panel in the invitation.

4.2. The pre-selection panel will analyse the application documents (curriculum vitae, motivation letter, and eligibility criteria grid) of applicants with reference to the eligibility and selection criteria and will draw up a list of up to ten¹⁰ candidates based on their merits and criteria set above to invite to interview and to sit a written test(s). Interviews and written tests may possibly be held remotely.

The interview will aim to assess the motivation and the professional knowledge of the candidates as well as their suitability to perform the duties mentioned under main responsibilities. The interview will be held in English. Written tests will be carried out in English and will be related to the job and designed to test the ability to communicate in written English, knowledge and competencies related to the job, and drafting skills.

Following the interview and written test, the pre-selection panel will draw up a shortlist of up to the five¹¹ most suitable candidates who most correspond to the profile sought.

4.3. Short listed candidates will be invited to an interview with a selection panel chaired by the Executive Director.

4.4. All short listed applicants invited to the interview with the selection panel shall take part in an assessment centre, unless they have already taken part in such an assessment centre in the context of an application to a management position at an EU Institutions/Agencies in the course of the two years preceding the closing date for the receipt of applications. If an applicant has taken part in an assessment centre within this two-year period, but not within the 18 months preceding the closing date for the receipt of applications, she/he may at her/his request, be admitted to the assessment centre.

The assessment centre shall evaluate the applicants' potential and shall provide an in-depth analysis of managerial skills, adaptability and other core competencies. It shall comprise individual and/or group exercises as well as in-depth interviews focussed on management skills. The result of the assessment centre shall be taken into consideration by the Executive Director.

¹⁰ In the case of equal performance, the number of candidates will be adjusted accordingly.

¹¹ See footnote 10

4.5. Following the interview with the selection panel and considering the results of the written test and interview with the pre-selection panel as well as the results of the assessment centre, the reserve list of successful candidates who most correspond to the profile sought will be established. The reserve list will be valid until 31 December 2022. It may be renewed. Inclusion on the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment. The successful candidate will be selected from the established reserve list that may also be used for the recruitment of a similar post depending on the needs of the EBA. When a vacancy becomes available, candidates on the reserve list may be contacted for an additional interview.

In accordance with Articles 11 and 11a of the Staff Regulations (SR) and Articles 11 and 81 of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) the successful candidate will be required to make a declaration of the conflict of interest before recruitment. The EBA's Executive Director will examine whether the successful candidate has any personal interest which may impair his/her independence or any other conflict of interest in relation to the position offered and will adopt appropriate measures. To that end, the successful candidate, using a specific form shall inform the Executive Director of any actual or potential conflict of interest.

Please note that the selection work and deliberations are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden. Any contact made by the candidates or third parties in order to influence the members of the selection procedure in relation to the selection constitutes grounds for disqualification from the selection procedure.

5. Appointment and conditions of employment

5.1 Contract type, duration and starting date:

The successful candidate will be offered a temporary agent¹² fixed-term contract of three years with a probation period of nine months and the possibility of extension.

The estimated starting date is 1 May 2021.

Information reserved for candidates employed as temporary agents under Article 2(f) of the CEOS in other EU agencies: If the successful applicant from the external selection procedure is already a member of temporary staff 2(f) in another EU Agency, the relevant provisions of the Decision of the Management Board laying down general implementing provisions on the procedure governing the engagement and use of temporary staff under Article 2(f) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (EBA/DC/2015/126)¹³ will apply.

The offices of the European Banking Authority are located on Floors 24 – 27, Europlaza, 20 Avenue André Prothin, 92927 Paris, La Défense, France.

5.5 Ethics obligations

Independence and high standards of professional conduct are crucial for ensuring high standards and excellence for the work of the EBA. The Agency also strives to ensure that its staff do not have any interests that could affect their impartiality.

The successful candidate will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make an annual declaration with respect to any interests which might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence. In addition, the successful candidate will be bound to professional secrecy and to confidentiality requirements while working at the EBA and after having left; he/she will have to confirm their compliance with these requirements on a specific declaration of intention.

Before recruiting a member of staff, the EBA's Executive Director will examine whether the candidate has any personal interest which may impair his/her independence or any other conflict of interest. To that end, the applicant, using a specific form, shall inform the Executive Director of any actual or potential conflict of interest.

Former staff members will be bound to seek clearance from the EBA before engaging in another activity for two years after leaving the Agency. If that activity is related to the work carried out during the last three years of service at the EBA, and it could lead to a conflict with the legitimate interests of the EBA, the Agency can give its approval subject to any conditions it sees fit or forbid the activity.

For more information on ethics obligations, please refer to the following documents:

- Decision of the Management Board EBA DC 006 of 12 January 2011 on EBA Code of Good Administrative Behaviour;¹⁴
