The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent European Union Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010.⁴

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the European Union internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority

Implementation of the EBA's traineeship programme is governed by the Decision on paid traineeships offered by the European Banking Authority (EBA DC 263) and the Decision of the Executive Director on organisational and financial arrangements for EBA trainees in the context of the Agency's relocation from London to Paris (EBA DC 264).

Traineeship offers are for an initial period of 6 months, and can be extended for a further period of maximum 6 months, not exceeding a total duration of 12 months. The conditions of the extension are subject to the performance of the trainee and the further needs of the agency.

For this open call, applications are received on an ongoing basis starting from the date of publication of the call. The eligibility of the applications will be assessed by the Human Resources Unit in accordance with section 1.1 of the 'Eligibility Criteria' given in this vacancy. Further to this, a selection committee will be nominated to carry out the evaluation of eligible applications and the selection of the most suitable candidates.

The first evaluation of applications will take place approximately one month after publication of the open call. Applications will then be assessed on an ongoing basis, or as and when there is an open trainee position at the EBA, whichever is the sooner.

Following the evaluation carried out by the selection committee, the most suitable candidates may be invited for a remote interview by the selection committee, which could include other appropriate testing. A reserve list of suitable candidates will be established on an ongoing basis and whenever there is a need in one of the departments/units/teams, the reserve list will be consulted and a candidate selected from it. All trainees will have the direct supervision of a mentor.

For these trainee profiles: Assistance to EBA Teams, Personal Assistant, Communications, Finance and Procurement, Human Resources and Information Technology, the successful candidates will be recruited for a specific unit in the department, depending on their background, education and set of skills. For an overview of the departments/units please consult the Organisation Chart of the EBA.

Non-successful candidates will be notified of the outcome of their application on completion of the first evaluation and after every subsequent evaluation of applications. Exclusion in the recruitment process does not affect by any means their future participation to other open calls.

2. Equal opportunities

As a European Union Authority, the EBA will apply a policy of equal opportunities and will take care to avoid any form of discrimination in its recruitment procedures.

3. Submission of applications

Application shall be sent together with the required documents in pdf format to EBA-Traineeship-Applications@eba.europa.eu

Please make sure that you clearly indicate how you meet the abovementioned eligibility and selection criteria in your application. We advise you to keep in mind the profile you wish to apply for and give as many substantial examples as possible.

Required application documents:

- A Curriculum Vitae in the Europass format¹¹;
- A motivation letter of not more than one page;
- Example(s) of the work that you have produced in English (up to a maximum of 3 pages)
- A completed, dated and signed eligibility criteria grid;
- Copies of diplomas (or relevant certificates) of all undergraduate and post-graduate studies declared in the CV (self-certifications are not accepted).
