The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent European Union Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EC) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010.<sup>2</sup>

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the European Union internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS), the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA) and the European Securities Market Authorities (ESMA), as well as the Joint Committee and the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

<sup>1</sup> According to the Article 2(f) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS)

<sup>2</sup> OJ L 56, 4.3.1968, p. 1, as last amended by Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 1023/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 October 2013, OJ L 287, 29.10.2013, p.15.

The European Banking Authority is seeking suitable candidates for the position of Bank Sector Analysts in its Oversight Department.

Job description

In particular, under the responsibility of the Head of the Risk Analysis Unit, the Bank Sector Analysts will play a key part in strengthening the EBA's capacity to undertake effective risk assessments and drafting clear analytical reports. The Bank Sector Analysts will also contribute to the EBA's work in stress testing, including the development of the methodology and the coordination of the execution phase. Furthermore, the successful candidates will be involved in the broader debate on banking sector risks in the EU as part of the EBA's contribution to the European System of Financial Supervision.

Main purpose

Contributing to the EBA's assessment of risks and vulnerabilities in the EU banking sector, carrying out thematic work and contributing to other EBA projects, particularly the EU-wide stress test.

Main responsibilities:

- Strengthening the EBA's capacity to assess risks, and the appropriate policy response, in banks across the EU banking sector utilising the EBA's supervisory data and information from other sources including colleges and publicly available data;
- Contributing to the EU-wide stress testing and other EU-wide initiatives;
- Contributing to the improvement of the EBA's input material to its risk assessments and dashboards, including data management;
- Contributing to individual work streams to produce original thematic analyses on the EU banking sector as well as regular risk reports on risks and vulnerabilities.

Requirements

1. Eligibility Criteria

To be considered eligible, candidates must satisfy all the criteria listed below, by the deadline for submitting applications.

1.1 General

- Be a national of a Member State of the European Union, or a national of the European Economic Area (Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway);
- Be entitled to his/her full rights as a citizen;<sup>3</sup>
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by the applicable laws on military service;

<sup>3</sup> Prior to the appointment, the successful candidate will be asked to provide a police certificate confirming the absence of any criminal record.

- Have a thorough knowledge of one of the official languages of the European Union<sup>4</sup> and a satisfactory knowledge of another language of the European Union;
- Be physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post.<sup>5</sup>

1.2 Specific

1.2.1 Qualifications

To be eligible, a candidate must have a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least three years attested by a diploma.<sup>6</sup>

1.2.2 Professional experience

To qualify for the position, a candidate must have, in addition to the above, at least 3 years of relevant proven fulltime professional experience in the field of financial stability, banking supervision or regulation after completing the education as mentioned under 1.2.1.

1.2.3 Knowledge of languages

For working purposes, as English is the working language of the EBA,<sup>7</sup> an excellent knowledge of the English language, both written and spoken, is required.<sup>8</sup>

Native English speakers will be tested to prove their second language skills, in accordance with section 1.1.

2. Selection criteria

In addition to the above, the candidate must

- Have proven experience in the analysis of risks and vulnerabilities in the banking sector;
- Have proven experience in stress testing;
- Have excellent drafting skills;
- Have proven experience in designing and drafting reports on the banking sector;
- Have proven experience in the use of banking data;
- Have proven experience in the use of statistical software (preferably SAS) and standard software packages (in particular Microsoft Excel).

<sup>5</sup> Before the appointment, the successful candidate will be examined by one of the European Union medical centres in order to confirm that the candidate fulfils the requirements of Article 12(2)(d) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS).

<sup>6</sup> Only qualifications awarded by EU Member State authorities or European Economic Area (EEA) authorities or qualifications recognised as equivalent by the relevant authorities will be taken into consideration. If the main studies took place outside the European Union, the candidate's qualification must have been recognised by a body delegated officially for the purpose by one of the European Union Members States (such as a national Ministry of Education) and a document attesting so must be submitted with the application by the closing date.

<sup>8</sup> The knowledge is required at least at B2 level. The assessment at B2 level is done in accordance with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) (<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/sites/default/files/cefr-en.pdf>)

The knowledge of bank accounting and supervisory reporting as well as European Banking regulation would be advantageous.

Applications will be assessed on the basis of the Eligibility and Selection criteria specified in parts 1 and 2 and these must be met by the deadline for submitting applications.

For this position the candidates are expected to fulfil the following competencies to be assessed during interviews:
