

The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent EU Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EC) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010, and published in the Official Journal of the European Union (L 331/12) on 15 December 2010.

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the EU internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the ESFS, the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, EIOPA and ESMA, as well as the Joint Committee and the ESRB.

The EBA is currently inviting applications for a position as a Policy Expert on secondment at its offices in London, United Kingdom.

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

POLICY EXPERT (Q&A process on CRR/CRD)

Job description

The EBA is seeking suitable candidates for a position as a Policy Expert on secondment to support its regulatory tasks in the area of the Capital Requirements Regulation (CRR) and the Capital Requirements Directive (CRD) and to work on application issues around these legislative frameworks and the EBA products that will accompany them.

In particular, under the overall management of the Director of Regulation and the responsibility of the Head of the Capital Asset and Liability Management Unit, the Policy Expert on secondment will contribute to the work on the Questions and Answers (Q&A) process that the EBA is setting up for addressing stakeholders' questions on the practical application of the CRR and implementation of the CRD, including questions about the EBA's related binding technical standards (BTS) and guidelines.

The Policy Expert on secondment will also contribute to the development of the EBA's policy stances in the EU and other international fora and will represent the EBA externally at a technical level in his/her area of expertise.

Main responsibilities:

- Preparing policy stances and providing policy advice with a view to the consistent and effective application of CRR/CRD and related products, in particular in the context of the CRR/CRD Q&A process;
- Supporting the single process for addressing stakeholders' questions on both the level 1 CRR/CRD texts and the associated BTS and guidelines;
- Participating in the development of guidelines and binding technical standards in line with the EBA Work Program;
- Ensuring an efficient and adequate execution of the Q&A process and the timely completion of guidelines and binding technical standards;
- Externally representing the EBA at a technical level in his/her area of expertise;
- Providing support to internal committees and subgroups and their chairpersons, in particular in the area of the Q&A process;
- Facilitating external consultations, implementation studies, training and impact assessments for the respective guidelines and binding technical standards;
- Developing EBA opinions;
- Cooperating effectively with the other ESAs and the ESRB, especially with a view to the development of coordinated and possibly joint policy stances, guidelines and standards.
