

Workshop on regulatory tools and the EU institutional architecture for the financial sector

17 January 2014

EBA Offices, 5th Floor, 30 Old Broad Street, London EC2N 1HQ

9:30 – 17:00

Chair: Professor René Smits

Agenda Item	Time
1. Introductory remarks	09:30-09:45
2. The European institutional set-up on financial regulation The session will focus on the jurisprudence and legislative developments affecting the European institutional setting for financial regulation and supervision, with a particular focus on the reach of the ‘Meroni doctrine’. <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Presentation by Prof. Stefan Griller (25 min)▪ Presentation by Prof. Niamh Moloney (25 min)▪ Panel discussion moderated by the Chair (1 hour)▪ Q&A/Interactive session with the audience (remaining time)	09:45-12:45
Lunch break	12:45-14:00
3. The “new regulatory tools” The session will focus on the regulatory tools provided within the legal framework of the European Supervisory Authorities (technical standards, guidelines and recommendations, the European supervisory handbook), and will examine their relationship with level 1 legislation – including their scope, effects and implications. <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Presentation by Prof. Alexander Türk (25 min)▪ Presentation by Prof. Edoardo Chiti (25 min)▪ Panel discussion moderated by the Chair (1 hour)▪ Q&A/Interactive session with the audience (remaining time)	14:00-17:00

Panels

The two Panels will both be comprised of a Chair, representatives from the European Supervisory Authorities, supervisory authorities and academics.

Audience

The workshop is addressed to policymakers, supervisors and legal academics.
Please note that participation is by invitation only.
