

The Authority

The European Banking Authority (“EBA”) is an independent EU Authority established on 1 January 2011 by Regulation (EC) No. 1093/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010, and published in the Official Journal of the European Union (L 331/12) on 15 December, 2010.

The Mission

With a view to improving the functioning of the EU internal market, the EBA contributes to ensuring a high quality, effective and consistent level of regulation and supervision in its areas of competence. It also promotes public values such as the stability of the financial system, the transparency of markets and financial products, and the protection of depositors and investors.

It works to prevent regulatory arbitrage and guarantee a level playing field, strengthens international supervisory coordination, promotes supervisory convergence and provides advice to the Union institutions in the areas of banking, payments and e-money regulation and supervision, and related corporate governance, auditing and financial reporting issues.

As an integral part of the ESFS, the EBA works closely together with her sister authorities, EIOPA and ESMA, as well as the Joint Committee and the ESRB.

The EBA is currently inviting applications for a position as a Bank Sector Analyst at its offices in London, United Kingdom.

Further information on the EBA is available on the EBA website: www.eba.europa.eu.

BANK SECTOR ANALYST

Job description

The European Banking Authority is seeking suitable candidates for the position of Bank Sector Analyst in its Oversight Department.

In particular, under the responsibility of the Head of the Risk Analysis Unit, the Bank Sector Analyst will play a key part in strengthening the EBA’s capacity to undertake effective micro-prudential risk assessments. The Bank Sector Analyst will lead the EBA’s work in assessing risks in individual institutions and across the banking sector as a whole as well as contributing to cross sector risk assessments under the auspices of the joint committee. Furthermore, the successful candidate will be directly involved in the broader debate on banking sector risks in the EU as part of the EBA's contribution to the European System of Financial Supervision.

Main purpose

Assessing risks and vulnerabilities in the EU banking sector.

Main responsibilities:

- Strengthening the EBA's capacity to assess risks, and the appropriate policy response, in banks across the EU banking sector utilising the EBA's supervisory data and information from other sources including colleges and publicly available data;
- Leading the improvement of the EBA's input material to its risk assessments and dashboards;
- Leading individual work streams to produce original thematic analysis on the EU banking sector as well as regular risk reports on risks and vulnerabilities;
- Engaging with national authorities to build a complete picture of risks in the EU banking sector;
- Contributing to the EBA's engagement with the other European Supervisory Authorities (ESAs) and the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB) to produce effective cross-sectoral risk assessment reports and ensure effective discussion of EU financial sector risks at the ESRB;
- Contributing to the EBA's other oversight activities including EU-wide stress testing and other EU-wide initiatives.

Requirements

6. Submission of Applications

Applications including a curriculum vitae in the Europass format, motivation letter, and eligibility criteria grid should be submitted in English to the following address: vacancies@eba.europa.eu by 22 April 2013 at 12:00 noon London time.

EBA will disregard any application received after deadline. Applicants are strongly advised not to wait until the last day to submit their applications, since heavy internet traffic or fault with the internet connection could lead to difficulties in submission. The EBA cannot be held responsible for any delay due to such difficulties.

Only complete applications will be accepted and considered. In order for the application to be considered complete candidates must send all documents: a curriculum vitae in the Europass format, motivation letter, and eligibility criteria grid before the deadline.

Candidates should assess and check before submitting their application whether they fulfil all the requirements as specified in the vacancy notice, particularly in terms of qualifications and relevant professional experience.

Professional experience indicated in the curriculum vitae are counted only from the time the candidate obtained the certificate or diploma required for the position. Start and end dates of all previous positions and whether full time or part time work should be indicated in the curriculum vitae. Freelance or self employed candidates must provide either a copy of the entry in the relevant trade register, or any official document (for example a tax revenue) showing clearly the length of the relevant professional experience. Details of any professional experience, training, research or studies must be given on the application form. Candidates must be able to provide photocopies of supporting documents clearly showing duration and nature of experience upon request.

At this stage, please do not send supporting documents (copies of ID cards, passports, diplomas, etc.)

7. Data protection

EBA will ensure that candidates' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data. This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

8. Appeal Procedure

If a candidate considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision, he/she can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, at the following address:

The Executive Director
European Banking Authority
Selection procedure: Ref. DOV/RA TA 14/2013
Floor 18 Tower 42
London EC2N 1HQ
United Kingdom

The complaint must be lodged within 3 months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure (see Staff Regulations as modified by Council Regulation No 723/2004 of 22 March 2004 published in the Official Journal of the European Union L 124 of 27 April 2004 – <http://europa.eu/eur-lex>) starts to run from the time the candidate is notified of the act adversely affecting him/her.

You can submit a judicial appeal under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU (ex Art. 236 TEC) and Article 91 of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities to the:

European Union Civil Service Tribunal
Boulevard Konrad Adenauer
Luxembourg 2925

Please note that the appointing authority does not have the power to amend the decisions of a selection board. The Civil Service Tribunal has consistently held that the wide discretion enjoyed by selection boards is not subject to review by the Civil Service Tribunal unless rules which govern the proceedings of selection boards have been infringed.

For details of how to submit an appeal, please consult the website of the European Union Civil Service Tribunal: http://curia.europa.eu/en/instit/txtdocfr/index_tfp.htm. The time limits for initiating these two types of procedure (see Staff Regulations as amended by Council Regulation (EC) No 723/2004 of 22 March 2004, published in Official Journal of the European Union L 124 of 27 April 2004 — <http://eur-lex.europa.eu>) start to run from the time you are notified of the act allegedly prejudicing your interests.

It is also possible to complain to the European Ombudsman pursuant to Article 195(1) of the Treaty establishing the European Community and in accordance with the conditions laid down in the Decision of the European Parliament of 9 March 1994 on the Staff Regulations and the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, published in Official Journal of the European Union L 113 of 4 May 1994:

European Ombudsman
1 Avenue du Président Robert Schuman
CS 30403
67001 Strasbourg Cedex
France
<http://www.ombudsman.europa.eu>

Complaints made to the Ombudsman have no suspensive effect on the period laid down in Articles 90(2) and 91 of the Staff Regulations for lodging, respectively, a complaint or an appeal with the European Union Civil Service Tribunal under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU (ex Art. 236 TEC). Furthermore under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned.
